

The Friends of the Phoenixville Public Library are a group of energetic individuals who work together and raise money for library needs. Money that is collected through book sales and other fund raising events is used to purchase books and provide library programs.

Joining the Friends is a fun way to benefit the Phoenixville community and to make new friends. What are you waiting for?

Love your Library?

The Friends lend something special to everything they do for the Phoenixville Library. They meet multiple times per year and work in Gently Read Books as well as participate in several other fundraisers

In 2009 the Friends contributed over $12,000 to Phoenixville Public Library for:

- Wine, Wit & Wisdom
- Children's Summer Reading Program
- Teen Gaming
- Audio Books
- Electronic Equipment
